Section A – Membership Details

It is the rider/handler who is required to be a member. Membership is not required for the owner, if different. Where Junior membership has been applied for, there is no requirement for the parent to also become a member. Lead rein competitors – it is the rider, not the leader who needs to be a member. A membership pack will be posted to you.

Please print clearly - your membership number will be emailed to you in the first instance
